WAIPUKURAU LITTLE THEATRE

Dale Wasserman's

One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest

From the novel by Ken Kesey

Directed by Cefyn Gauden.

Many people remember the 1975 multi award winning film with Jack Nicholson and Louise Fletcher, but perhaps they don't realise that the play was first performed in 1963 with Kirk Douglas in the lead role.

The script is wonderful, but extremely challenging for the director and cast. It demands real discipline, intelligence and imagination to realise the full potential of the play.

The sixteen members of the cast are all members of this local community and they demonstrate the depth of talent we are fortunate to have in the Central Hawke's Bay.

I am truly indebted to each and every one of them. They worked so hard and have been wonderfully supportive and an absolute pleasure to direct. It's been a creative collaboration that I will always look back on with a great sense of pride.

My sincere appreciation also goes to everybody else involved in making this production possible.

Waipukurau Little Theatre – Presents

Weighing In

By Lucy Schmidt

Directed by Simon Law

The group are desperately trying to get their weight down by Christmas, but is Nutrionics, lead by the outrageously caustic Cynthia really working, or would they have had more success taking the challenge into their own hands?

12 – 21 July 2012

The PREMIERE PRODUCTION of;

Whatever

Written and Directed by Terry Coyle

Emma and Robert, a soon-to-be divorced couple agree to meet at their family home to decide on how the contents will be divided. Husband Robert has already moved on and is living with his young girlfriend. The arrival of Emma's parents and Claire Beaumont, a house stylist engaged to prepare the house for sale, add further complications to this domestic comedy/drama.
